

The Genius Way to Travel

Genius365 Introduces New Travel Concierge Service Starting From 55p a Day

PARIS, January 18, 2011 - Finding a great restaurant for dinner, the phone number for a taxi at 4am or rescheduling last-minute flights can be a frustrating process for travellers abroad, in any foreign location, without local contacts and unable to speak the language. Travel setbacks, however small, can turn a brilliant trip into a miserable one - that's why the global travel concierge service Genius365 has just launched.

Genius365 is a personal travel concierge service available around the clock in any country and time zone, providing travellers who don't want to leave the success or enjoyment of their trip to chance with full range of concierge and travel assistance services.

The catch? There isn't one.

Genius365, which starts at a very affordable £0.55 a day, gives travellers the confidence, security and peace of mind that their travel concierge will provide immediate assistance at any time. Have an emergency or need a chemist in Phuket at 2am? Need tickets for a sporting event or recommendations for the best local eats?

Genius365 handles the logistics of taxis and ground transportation, flights, hotel and restaurant reservations, schedule coordination and help with local language services.

In other words, Genius365 takes care of all the things that will keep any travel plans running smoothly.

Travellers can choose a concierge package from Genius365.com that best suits their needs, with plans of 7, 15, 31, 90 or 365 days available. A whole year costs just £190 and there are no hidden fees or contracts. Genius365 customers have access to a local concierge for every destination on their travel itinerary, and can change use their personal travel assistant as many times as needed. There are no limits on usage or travel services in any destination.

The Genius Way to Travel

Genius365 offers travellers a unique, valuable and trustworthy solution, providing services that can significantly enhance their trip experience whether travelling on a family holiday, romantic getaway or business trip.

The technical and commercial aspects of Genius365 were developed by Airsavings, a company that has served over 4 million passengers and works with many of Europe's low-cost airlines in developing innovative value-add and ancillary revenue services, allowing business or leisure passengers to travel to any destination with a guaranteed low price service.

For more information about Genius365's new travel concierge service, please contact please contact Vanessa Horwell at vanessa@thinkinkpr.com or +44.203.372.4809 or visit www.genius365.com for more information.

About Genius365 – Personal Concierge Services for Travellers

Genius365 provides personal concierge services to global travellers, 24-hours, 7 days a week in any time zone and country. Genius365 handles the logistics of ground transportation, flights, hotel and restaurant reservations, schedule coordination and local language services to ensure that travellers can get the most of their time abroad and not leave the success and enjoyment of their trip to chance. For more information, please visit www.genius365.com.

